From Tuesday December 18, to Saturday December 22, 1759.

Westminster, December 20.

THIS Day, the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by Mr. Quarme, Deputy Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by Virtue of His Majesty's Commission, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, impowering his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, the Lord President of the Council, and several other Lords, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Bills was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to,

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

An Act to continue, for a limited Time, the Importation of salted Beef, Pork, and Butter, from Ireland.

An Act to continue, for a further Time, the Prohibition of the making of Low Wines and Spirits, from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or any other Sort of Grain, or from Meal, Flour, or Bran.

And to one Private Bill.

St. James's, December 22.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Foreman, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Foreman, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Dublin.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Foreman, and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne, with sincere Congratulations, for the signal Success, with which God hath blessed your Majesty's Arms, in all Parts of the World.

The Courage and Humanity of your Majesty's Armies, at all Times conspicuous, but so signally experienced by the Enemy in the Attack and Capitulation of Quebec, must convince the World, that their Success was not unmerited; and that your Majesty's Cause, as it was founded in Justice, hath been conducted with Honour. The Reduction of Niagara, the Evacuation of Ticonderoga and Crown Point, with the important Acquisition which gives the Capital of Canada to your Majesty, will, we hope, effectually secure from Invasion the Colonies of Great Britain, which are no less considerable Ornaments and Supports of their Parent Country, than Objects of the Jealousy and Ambition of France. And the memorable Advantage gained by your Majesty's Troops under your illustrious Commander Prince Ferdinand, over such superior Numbers near Minden, the prosperous Events of War in Africa, the East and West Indies, and near Cape Lagos, memorable Proofs, that Great Britain is not to be insulted with Impunity, will, we hope, in due Time conduce to an honourable and a lasting Peace.

Permit us to acknowledge with Gratitude, the Wisdom and Steadiness of your Majesty's Councils, which have so carefully provided for our Security, that amidst the Confusion of War, which hath distracted all the Quarters of the World, we have long enjoyed the Blessings of uninterrupted Tranquility, under the happy Influence of a Governor, whose prudent Administration is distinguished by many salutary Laws, for the Prosperity of this Kingdom. And to assure your Majesty, that, should the Enemy, incited by Despair, attempt to interrupt our Peace, you will find us ready to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, the just Rights of your Majesty's Crown.

We beg Leave to conclude with our sincere Prayers for the Prosperity of your illustrious House; and that your Majesty's Reign may be long, as it is glorious and happy to your Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, having been transmitted by Sir William Codrington, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley in the County of York.

AMIDST the universal Joy of our Countrymen, permit us, gracious Sovereign, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Beverley in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, to congratulate your Majesty upon the late glorious and rapid Progress of your Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land.

Events of this extraordinary Nature, so happy to us and fatal to our Enemies, are the visible Effects of the Blessing of the Divine Providence upon your Majesty's Councils, exerted in Vindication of the just Rights of your People, in Support of their Commerce, and for the Glory of your Majesty's Government.

To enumerate each particular of the illustrious Conduct of your Majesty's Forces, equal to the famed Exploits of the most warlike Nations; their Contempt of Dangers, and of superior Numbers; their Prudence in Council, their Intrepidity in Action; or to lament the unhappy Loss of a gallant Youth, who fell in the Hour of Victory, were at this Time unnecessary. Actions, so numerous, of such Variety and mighty Importance, will live in the Memory of all Ages, distinguishing this as a shining Period in British History.

While we enjoy such Glory Abroad, and possess such happy Unanimity at Home; while we see our Trade protected, our ancient Rights defended, and new ones acquired, we cannot but be deeply sensible, how much the Happiness of these Kingdoms depends upon your Majesty's Person and Government. May the Divine Power long protect them, and preserve your Majesty to be a Blessing to your People, and a Terror to all your Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty-seventh Day of November, in the Thirty-Third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Price Six-Pence.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Durham: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations, upon the great and ſignal Succeſſes which have crowned your Majeſty's Arms by Sea and Land, in this memorable Year. A Year which will be ever diſtinguiſhed in our Annals, for Peace, Unanimity, and uncommon Plenty at Home, and Victories Abroad!

The Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils, the Conduct, Boldneſs and irreſiſtable Courage of your Admirals, Generals, and all thoſe under their Command, have been ſeen with Admiration, and ſeverely felt by your Enemies, in every Quarter of the World. Difficulties and Dangers did not allay the Ardor of theſe gallant Men, they ſerved only to ſhew their invincible Reſolution in overcoming of them.

Amidſt our Rejoycings, your Majeſty will permit us to lament the Loſs of General Wolfe, whoſe Youth promiſed many future Services to his King and Country. But though Death hath thus early ſnatched him from us, he will live for ever, in the Remembrance of his Countrymen; and the Honours paid to his Memory, and to thoſe great Men who ſurvive him, and have fought your Majeſty's Battles ſo valiantly and victoriouſly, will incite others to tread in their Steps, and produce new Heroes emulous to follow ſuch glorious Examples. We moſt fervently pray the Almighty, that He will pleaſe long to preſerve your Majeſty's precious Life; and when full of Years, and full of Glory, He calls you to enjoy Crowns, which will be immortal; may He grant us a laſting Succeſſion of your moſt illuſtrious Race, to govern theſe Kingdoms, and make our Poſterity happy, as we are.

Given under the Common Seal of the City of Durham, the Tenth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, 1759.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Kirkby in Kendal, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir James Lowther, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Cumberland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

PERMIT us, moſt gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of your Borough of Kirkby in Kendal, in Court aſſembled, to congratulate your Majeſty on the numerous and illuſtrious Succeſſes which the Divine and Adorable Providence of God hath indulged to the uniform Magnanimity of your Conduct, the conſummate Wiſdom of your Councils, the inflexible Bravery of your Troops, and the ardent Reſolution of your Fleets.

Warm with pious Gratitude to the moſt beneficent of Beings, and firm in zealous Affection to the beſt of Kings, we unfeignedly rejoice that the Author of all Good, and the only Giver of Victory, hath appeared, owned your Majeſty's Cauſe, and animated your Forces; "taught their Hands to war, their "Fingers to fight;" and their Hearts to foil the inveterate and invidious Enemy of your Crown and Kingdoms.

Indeed, your Majeſty's Forces have outſhined the Enemy as much in the Valour and Conſtancy of their Souls, as in the Juſtice and Dignity of their Cauſe. What a conſpicuous and continued Train of glorious Atchievements and advantagious Acquiſitions has attended your Majeſty's Meaſures and Arms both by Sea and Land in this diſtinguiſhed and ever memorable Year! Directed by your Royal Inſtructions, and aided by the Favours of Heaven, your Excellent Admirals and Generals, and the brave Men under their Command, have performed ſurpriſing and ſurpaſſing Acts of Conduct and Courage. They have made an uninterrupted Progreſſion from Conqueſt to Conqueſt, from Triumph to Triumph, and in all the four Quarters of the World have defeated the Grand Diſturber of the World.

Theſe divine and eminent Bleſſings, conferred on your Majeſty's wiſe Plan of the War, and the vigorous Execution of it, have given the greateſt Life and Light and Luſtre to Great Britain. They have encreaſed the publick Happineſs, widened Navigation, and promoted Commerce, a Source that enriches this Iſland, a Soul that enlivens it. They have enlarged your Majeſty's Power, extended your Fame, exalted your Figure, and made you more than ever the Terror of your Foes, the Delight of your Friends, and the Admiration of Europe.

In Truth, we are happy, moſt gracious Sovereign, under your paternal Care and magnanimous Conduct, and we are ſenſible of our Happineſs. Every Day we feel the joyful Effects of your Majeſty's aſſiduous Study, unwearied Labour, and ſole Aim to protect the Safety, and promote the Proſperity of your Subjects. How ought we to prize that Monarch, who makes the Welfare of his People the Point, wherein all his Views, all his Deſires, all his Cares and Councils center! Such is your Majeſty's Royal, exemplary and admirable Patriotiſm; and we are right glad that this Maſter-Spring of publick Good is invigorated by Parliamentary publick Spirit, Miniſterial Wiſdom, Military Perfection, Naval Fortitude, and National Unanimity. May all thoſe Patriot Virtues and Excellencies be for ever perpetuated in the Race of Britons, that there may never be a Want of Men who have Heads to plan, Hearts to aſſert, and Hands to execute the beſt and wiſeſt Meaſures to maintain and confirm the Honour of the Crown, and the Welfare of the People, of Great Britain.

We are amply convinced, moſt gracious Sovereign, that you are the generous Patron of Liberty, and the beneficent Father of your Country; and may there never be wanting in your Royal Houſe, a Succeſſion of Illuſtrious Princes, to inherit your Majeſty's Crown and Virtues; but it is, and ever ſhall be, our moſt ardent and conſtant Prayer to Almighty God. that you may live long, very long, to Nature, to Happineſs, and to Glory.

In Teſtimony of our Duty, Loyalty and Affection, we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, this 10th Day of December 1759.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Derby, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Lord Frederick Cavendiſh, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty and Congratulation, upon the Succeſs, which it has pleaſed a gracious Providence to grant to your Majeſty's Arms, and by which this Year will for ever be diſtinguiſhed in a Reign that has been already glorious to yourſelf, and happy to your Subjects.

A Series of Victories hath attended your Fleets and Armies, from the Taking of Goree to this preſent Time; and every Part of the Earth has been a Witneſs to ſome Defeat of your Enemies,

Goree, Guadaloupe, Minden, and other Names, will never be mentioned in future Days, without peculiar Honour to the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and to the Courage and Conduct of your Fleets and Armies, and their Leaders.

In

In a particular Manner we rejoice in the Conqueſt of Quebec, the Capital of the Enemy's Empire in North America, and in all the glorious Circumſtances of that important Acquiſition; excepting the lamented Fall of him, under whoſe Conduct it was attempted and almoſt executed.

But more eſpecially ſtill do we congratulate your Majeſty upon another great and yet more recent Event, that hath vaniſhed every remaining Fear of the Enemy from the Breaſts of your People, namely, the Defeat of the laſt and utmoſt Effort made by France, to redeem her own Loſſes, by invading theſe Kingdoms: A Defeat, begun by the Victory near Cape Lagos, and now conpleated by another Victory over her whole Fleet upon her own Coaſts.

And as we thankfully acknowledge the Hand of Providence in ſo many great and ſignal Succeſſes, obtained in the Proſecution of a juſt and neceſſary War; ſo we humbly deſire to ſubjoin our earneſt Prayers, that God would continue to add unto the Days of your Majeſty; and that, after a happy and ſpeedy Concluſion of a ſucceſsful War, He would give unto your Majeſty long to enjoy, together with a flouriſhing and grateful People, the further more deſirable Happineſs of a ſafe and honourable Peace.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Eighth Day of December, in the Thirty-third Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Coroner, Aldermen, and Commonalty of Thetford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Harry Beauclerk, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly,

To the King's moſt Excellent and moſt Sacred Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Coroner, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the ancient Borough of Thetford in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corporation of Thetford, in Common Council aſſembled, being truly animated with the warmeſt Affection for your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and actuated by an unfeigned Zeal for the Glory and Proſperity of your Majeſty's equitable Government, humbly beg Leave to lay at your Royal Feet the Overflowings of our grateful Hearts, and to congratulate your Majeſty on the equally Illuſtrious and Important Succeſſes, which Providence has been graciouſly pleaſed to accumulate, in Aid of your Majeſty's Rights, and in Vindication of an injured Nation.

Permit us, Royal Sir! to exult, and to rejoice with our Fellow-Subjects, whilſt we applaud your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom and Paternal Goodneſs, manifeſted in the Preſervation of theſe Rights; the Source of Glory to your Majeſty's Reign, and the Security of Wealth and Freedom to a dutiful, happy, and a grateful People.——Hence only, Sire! that Expanſe of Fame and Terrour, which our victorious Fleets and Armies have tranſported to Regions the moſt remote and diſtant in the habitable World; whilſt the implacable Malice and diabolical Machinations of our inveterate Enemies, exerciſed in planning Schemes for the Deſtruction of human Liberty, and the Erection of a deſpotic Empire even in your Majeſty's Dominions, are haſtening to Contempt and to Confuſion: The Commerce of Great Britain is reſtored, eſtabliſhed, and extended; and the Hands of your Majeſty's potent Ally, the magnanimous King of Pruſſia, ſtretched out in Support of the Proteſtant Cauſe, and Defence of the Proteſtant Powers in Europe, are filled with the Means of Safety, and ſtrengthen'd to ſhare and maintain with your Majeſty, Confederate Conqueſt, and Confederate Glory.

That your Majeſty, ſurrounded by able, uncorrupt, and faithful Servants, may thus long live the Delight and Glory of a truly devoted People; the Scourge of Tyranny and Oppreſſion; the Guardian of our Civil and Religious Liberties; and the Arbiter and Protector of the Rights and Independency of our Neighbour Proteſtant Nations, is the conſtant Wiſh and daily Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants,

The Corporation of Thetford.

Given at our Town-Hall, and under our Common Seal, on the 1ſt Day of December, 1759.

Whitehall, December 22.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint His Grace Thomas Holles Duke of Newcaſtle, Knight of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, the Right Honourable Henry Bilſon Legge, Eſq; James Grenville, Eſq; Frederick North, Eſq; commonly called Lord North, and James Oſwald, Eſq; to be Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of His Majeſty's Exchequer.

The King has been pleaſed to order His Congé d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Glouceſter, empowering them to elect a Biſhop of that See, the ſame being now void by the Tranſlation of the Right Reverend Father in God Dr. James Johnſon, late Biſhop thereof, to the See of Worceſter. And alſo His Majeſty's Letter, recommending to the ſaid Dean and Chapter, William Warburton, Doctor in Divinity, one of His Majeſty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Dean of the Cathedral Church of Briſtol, to be by them elected Biſhop of the ſaid See of Glouceſter.

The King has been pleaſed to order Letters Patent to be paſſed under the Great Seal of the Kingdom of Ireland, for granting unto the Right Hon. John Earl of Sandwich, Welbore Ellis, and Robert Nugent, Eſqrs. the Office or Offices of Vice Treaſurer and Receiver General, and Pay-Maſter General of His Majeſty's Revenues, as alſo the Office of Treaſurer at War in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland.

St. James's, December 19.

This Day Prince Sanſeverino, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, had a private Audience of His Majeſty to deliver his Letters of Credence,

To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable William Pitt, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Eſq; Aſſiſtant Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Admiralty Office, December 15, 1759.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint the following Gentlemen to be Officers in the Marine Forces; it is the Direction of the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, that the Second Lieutenants, hereafter named, do immediately repair to this Office, where Commiſſions will be delivered to ſuch of them as ſhall be approved of; after which they are to repair to the reſpective Head Quarters of the Companies to which they belong, unleſs they are commanded elſewhere by their ſuperior Officers.
